Comprehensive Assessment Session & Report (up to 2 ½ hours)

The purpose of this initial assessment session is to find out your child's strengths and needs, and to discuss possible causes/diagnoses. Assessment will include a detailed discussion with parents/carers, observation of your child playing with you, and the therapist interacting with your child. It will include formal assessment tests as considered appropriate by the Speech and Language Therapist. Assessment can be facilitated with information provided by any additional childcare/education settings your child attends. Verbal feedback will be provided during the session and a report will be provided following the assessment. This may take up to 6 weeks to prepare.

Assessment Screening Session (up to 55 minutes)

This shorter assessment session is often suitable for pre-school children and children who are reluctant talkers and need time to get to know the therapist. The purpose is to assess your child's strengths and needs and to trial strategies to support your child's communication. It will include a discussion with parents/carers, observation of your child playing with you, and the therapist interacting with your child. It may include formal assessment tests, if considered appropriate by the Speech and Language Therapist. Assessment can be facilitated with information provided by any additional childcare/education settings your child attends. Verbal feedback will be provided during the session. Following the screening session, follow-up assessment sessions may be recommended in order to gather further information about your child (charged at £70 per session). Written feedback will be given regarding the findings and recommendations at the end of an agreed assessment block, via email.

Therapy Session

Includes time spent working with you and your child on the goals agreed with the Speech and Language Therapist; time spent discussing your child's progress with you; and providing you with recommendations to support your child's next steps. As well as working with both of you, the therapist aims to observe parents carrying out recommended activities with their child so that advice can be given to parents about how they can best support their child's progress. Sessions vary in length, depending on your child's needs. Recommendations are provided in the session or sent via email, following the session.

Meeting with Parents

The therapist recognises the importance of involving both parents/carers in a child's therapy, in order to maximise communication outcomes for your child. She may therefore recommend a meeting with parents/carers, but without your child present. This will be to discuss the goals being worked on, answer questions that both parents may have, show or reflect on videos of your child and one/both parents. Some evening and weekend appointments are available if necessary to facilitate this option.

Meeting with other Professionals/ School

If there are other professionals involved in supporting your child, it will be important to ensure there is time for the Speech and Language Therapist to meet with them to share ideas about how best to support your child. Meetings with other professionals will be agreed with parents in advance, including agreement of the timing and cost. This will be confirmed in writing, via email.

Programme

Reports/programmes will include information about your child's strengths and needs, their response to therapy techniques and information on the strategies which are considered to be most helpful for your child. The therapist may recommend a programme is written so that activities can be carried out by nursery/school.

Resource Making

Creating resources for you to use in your home with your child includes time to create picture-based resources which will facilitate your child's communication, e.g. visual timetables, communication books, shape coding and colourful semantics packs.

£40/hour. Fee to be discussed and agreed with parent/carer

Telephone Liaison with Parents or others involved in child's care

The first 15 minutes are free. Thereafter, a fee of £5 per 10 minutes will be charged for the phone call.

Training

Bespoke training can be arranged to be delivered to any education setting your child attends. Training will be for a maximum of 10 people. Specific details about what this will include will be provided once agreed with the person/s requesting training.

£80 per hour

Treatment Decisions

At the end of an initial assessment session the Speech and Language Therapist will discuss with you her recommendations for your child. There are a number of options to consider including:

1. Further assessment
2. Therapy Sessions
3. Creating a programme
4. No further input

This decision will be made through discussion with parents/carers. There is no obligation to receive additional services following an initial assessment session.

Cancellation

If the therapist has to cancel your appointment, she will endeavour to give you as much notice as possible. Where possible an alternative appointment will be offered. In the case of adverse weather, sessions cancelled by the therapist or client will not be charged for.

If you need to cancel or alter an arranged appointment, please give as much notice as possible. If the therapy session is to take place at a third-party location e.g. school or nursery, it is your responsibility to inform the therapist if the session needs to be cancelled.

Appointments cancelled less than 48 hours before the appointment and failed appointments will be charged at full rate.

If you wish to cease therapy during a block of sessions, a week's notice is required. Therapy sessions will cease if an appointment is missed.
